SO GIGANTIC THE UNIVERSE

Music and Poem by Sonja Grossner

So gigantic the universe,
In which we are just a speck of dust.
Our Earth so wonderful,
So young, so old and just.
But we, the most dangerous alive,
Must care that species survive.

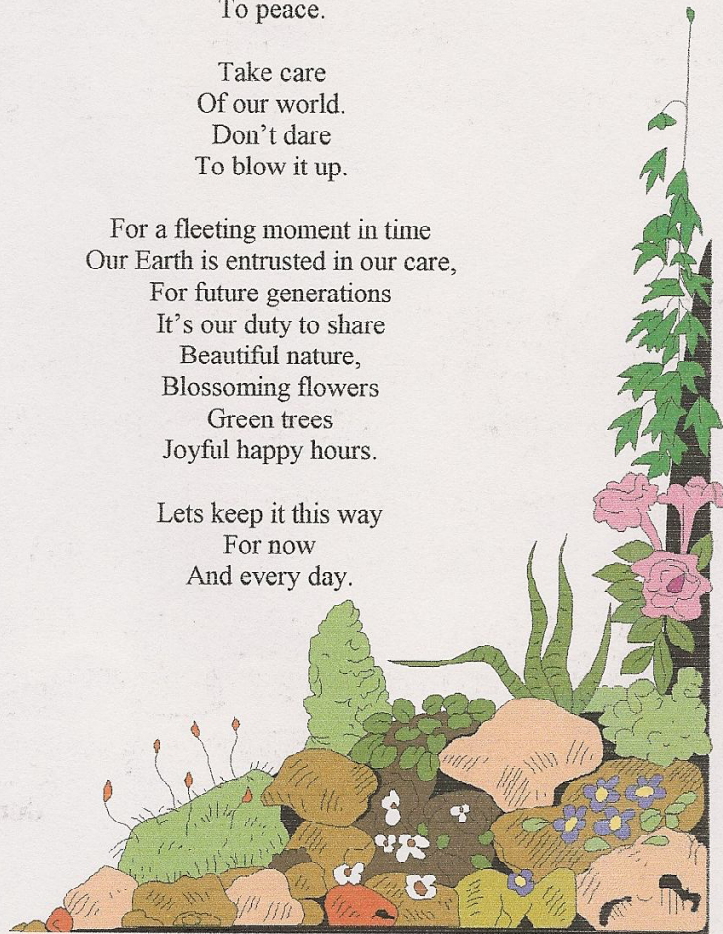

Oft we care not.
Oft we will not
See the harm done.
Peace and prosperity must come.

No war
Instead
An open door
To peace.

Take care
Of our world.
Don't dare
To blow it up.

For a fleeting moment in time
Our Earth is entrusted in our care,
For future generations
It's our duty to share
Beautiful nature,
Blossoming flowers
Green trees
Joyful happy hours.

Lets keep it this way
For now
And every day.
