

"LITTLE HANDS"
(written by S. J. J. W. 183.)

John
S. J. J. W.
1828.

For voice S. S. Mors.

With hands

Music by Edward Elgar

Levate con tenerezza e molto rubato.

pp espressivo

mp Ti - my hands, This first sweet vi - sion - ip of love can - ces, Skin - rip to touch a

pp espressivo

pp dolcissimo

fingers or a kiss Or puts a to - son - ain mp Ti - my hands I pp Ti - my hands I

18 p con delicatezza

More Harmon? and here

delicate

hands, not ad. vaporous or still or do. up with

23

from existing notes the wayward of itself to smooth the furrows out

27 pp abiecio

Little hands

pp

31

pp

piu espress.

piu espress

allargando

Brown hands so full of pain - by death and sin - the pain -

Oh where pain

hold I should not fear - death's hour -

But now for

Old hands, pu. hap a little here - my work is done, God grant that

by day Brown hands I love - Brown hands I love -

Old hands, pu. hap a little here - my work is done, God grant that

by day Brown hands I love - Brown hands I love -

Old hands, pu. hap a little here - my work is done, God grant that

by day Brown hands I love - Brown hands I love -

Old hands, pu. hap a little here - my work is done, God grant that

by day Brown hands I love - Brown hands I love -

Old hands, pu. hap a little here - my work is done, God grant that

by day Brown hands I love - Brown hands I love -

Old hands, pu. hap a little here - my work is done, God grant that

Andante

on the last long-jour-ney home - I feel - the pass-ure of

pp dim poco a poco

Andante

old hands I love - old hands I love

pp dim poco a poco