• Other settings by John Hawkins of poems by Edward Thomas

'The Unknown Bird' (voice with flute, viola and harp, c. 10 mins) consists of three settings ('Like the Touch of Rain', 'Out in the Dark' and 'The Unknown Bird'). It was first performed in 1980 and published by Comus Edition.

The cycle was also performed by baritone John Lofthouse in Steep church near Thomas's home in March 2022 with the Aurora Trio.

'For These' (SATB choir, c. 5 mins)

Commissioned and often performed by the Manchester choir Alteri, this setting interweaves the words of the Te Deum with 'For These' by Edward Thomas.

• Other works for solo voice by John Hawkins:

Before and After (baritone and piano c.7 mins)

Two poems by Isaac Rosenberg, poet and artist, killed in WWI: 'My Days' (written before the war) and 'Dead Man's Dump' written from experience in 1917.

The Dong with a Luminous Nose (baritone and solo clarinet, c. 15 mins)

A dramatic, poignant, and ultimately tragic, setting of the Edward Lear poem.

Recorded with Steve Dummer, clarinet and Aidan Smith, baritone, on Claudio Records CC6045-2.

'... as I listened I realised for the first time that Lear's words are far from nonsensical if treated as a serious tale of loneliness and loss.' – MUSIC WEB INTERNATIONAL 2020

Three poems by William Blake

'The Bard', 'Thel' and 'Rintrah Roars'

Friulian Songs (mezzo soprano and piano, c. 5 mins)

Poems about death, but ending in calm, by four Elizabethan poets

– Quarles, Tichborne, Southwell and Shakespeare.

Voices from the Sea (tenor with string orchestra, c. 18 mins)
