THE CIRCUS IS COMING

VIOLIN I

Handwritten musical score for Violin I, titled "THE CIRCUS IS COMING". The score is written on five staves in treble clef, with a 2/4 time signature.

- Staff 1: Starts with a 4-bar rest, indicated by a bracket and the text "4 bars rest". Above the staff, a box containing an 'X' is labeled "pizz.". The first four bars contain whole notes on the notes G4, A4, B4, and C5.
- Staff 2: Continues the melody with eighth notes. It ends with a double bar line and a fermata over the final note, with a "2" written above the staff.
- Staff 3: Labeled "arco" at the beginning. It features a series of eighth notes with various articulation marks (accents and slurs). A box containing a "Y" is placed above the staff.
- Staff 4: Continues the eighth-note pattern. A box containing a "Z" is placed above the staff.
- Staff 5: Continues the eighth-note pattern, ending with a double bar line and a fermata over the final note. A greater-than sign (>) is written below the staff.

Detailed description: This block contains a musical score for drum and triangle. It consists of six staves. The first staff is marked with a '2/4' time signature. The notation includes various rhythmic symbols: vertical lines for drum hits, wavy lines for triangle hits, and notes with stems. Some notes have accents (>) above them. A square box containing an 'X' is placed above the first note of the second staff, and a square box containing a 'Y' is placed above the fourth note of the fourth staff. The fifth staff continues the rhythmic pattern. The sixth staff begins with a square box containing a 'Z', followed by a thick horizontal line with the number '5' above it, indicating a five-bar rest. The score concludes with a double bar line.
