

There Is Nothing Brighter Than The Sun

$\text{♩} = 60$

Soprano f
There is no-thing bright - er_ than the sun. For through it all

Soprano f
There is no-thing bright - er_ sun.

Alto f
There is no-thing bright - er_ than the sun. For through it all

6

S. mp
things be-come ma-ni-fest. There is no - thing bright er_ than the sun.

S. mp
things be-come ma-ni-fest. There is no-thing bright-er than the sun, sun.

A. mp
things be-come ma-ni-fest. There is no-thing bright-er than the sun_ than the sun.

11

S. mf
For through it all things be-come ma-ni-fest. Yet, if the sun_

S. mf
For through it all things be-come ma-ni-fest. Yet, if the sun_

A. mf
For through it all things be-come ma-ni-fest.

16

S. mp
did not go down at night, veiled veiled by shade,

S. mp
did not go down at night, veiled veiled by shade,

A. mf
go down at night, or were veiled by shade,

21

S. no - one would

S. no - one would

A. no - one *Ad lib (spoken)
no - one would*

22

S. know.

S. know.

A. know there is such a thing as light on the face of the earth.

23

S. light! on the face of the earth.

S. No one_ would know there is such a thing as light, light! on the face of the earth.

A. No one_ would know there is such a thing as light on the face of the earth.

27

Calmly...

S. They have ap-pre-hen- ded_ light_ through its op-po- site.

S. They have ap - pre - hen - ded_ light_ through its op-po- site.

A. ap-pre-hen-ded light through its op-po- site.