

Noë

for double choir and organ

To Christopher Tolley

Duration

3'30

Performance Notes

The 'ë' in the word 'Noë' (= 'Noël') should be pronounced as in egg.

Where triads appear on each stave (for example bar 177), it is expected that they be divided SSA and TTB – however, the middle part may be taken by any number of altos/basses as well in order to achieve a good balance.

Translation

'Noë. Christ is born for us. Come and let us worship [him].'

James Weeks
London, September 2006

Preview File Only