

Jez riley French - 'score for listening # 10' one | in a natural space: listen for an audible line, clear and subtle - it should be on the edge of all other sounds two | in an interior: with one window open, viewing the score, find yourself unaware of the passing of time matters of duration are left to the listener