

each section corresponds to one gesture - the duration of which should mirror the length of the section edges of each section represent either the way in which each gesture should begin & end or develop each section features visual elements and one of these in each section should form the cue for the sound stillness, tonal, on the edge of the audible, lightness of touch